Agenda Item:	UPDATES/COMMISSION BUSINESS - Mike Sibbett
Notes:	Utah Tomorrow Committee: Mike Haddon was asked by the Utah Tomorrow Committee to identify the three most critical issues facing CCJJ. He distributed the Utah Crime Report pamphlet to them listing the four main areas identified by the Commission. Mike will continue to represent the Commission on this Committee. Extradition Working Group: Doreen Weyland reported on the approval from the Executive Committee to organize an extradition working group to identify issues surrounding extraditions. The group will discuss whether a policy needs to be developed and any restrictions on the type of crimes in which an individual will be extradited. Recommendations will be reported to the commission at a later meeting. CIO Award: Ed McConkie informed the Commission that the IT Subcommittee's (chaired by Jennifer Hemenway) work on technology

	received a CIO Award and will used as a model for the future. Congratulations to CCJJ's IT Subcommittee. CCJJ & USAAV Progress Report: Ed McConkie informed the Commission that in accordance with SB 1-Appropriations Act, CCJJ is identified as the agency to present progress reports to the Interim and General sessions on ideas and advances on alternatives to incarceration, particularly to drug offenders, that save time and money, without compromising the safety of the community. Ed has become associated with the VERA Institute that is comprised of his colleagues and peers across the country. The group will do research and presentations regarding alternatives to incarceration. The VERA Institute will bring peer groups from other states to meet with our legislature on what has worked in their particular states. The Institute may be paid for through grant money. Afton Bradshaw made a motion to go forward with the VERA Institute. Second: Val Shupe. The motion was unanimously approved. Georgia Block: Mike Sibbett recognized Georgia Block for her ten years of dedication and service to CCJJ and for bringing a perspective to the Commission that represented the public education system. Georgia thanked the Commission for allowing her to represent the children in the school system.
