JUVENILE COURT PROBATION INTERVENTIONS

Families First: is an intensive in-home intervention designed to teach skills to youth and parents and to improve family functioning.

NCTI Youth Crossroads: is a cognitive behavioral evidence-based program that offers an extensive library of juvenile curricula. The curricula consists of a variety of offense-specific titles that target specific interventions that address criminogenic risk factors that help reduce the risk of re offending.

Work Program: the work crew provides a place for youth to work off community services hours and/or restitution in a supervised environment.

Carey Guides: is a set of 33 Guides that address specific topics related to criminogenic needs and other critical case management issues, which help youth to change behaviors in critical skills deficit areas.

Brief Intervention Tools (BITs): are tools created to help professionals effectively address key skill deficits with adults or juveniles in short, structured interventions.

Aggression Replacement Training: promotes skills acquisition and performance, improves anger control, decreases the frequency of acting-out behaviors, and increases the frequency of constructive, prosocial behaviors.

Victim / Offender Mediation: with the assistance of a mediator, the parties work to resolve the conflict and to construct their own approach to restore justice.

Truancy Mediation: helps parents, caregivers, students, and schools find a fair and workable solution.

Restitution Employment Program: court supported employment program facilitating youth service at community placements compensated via joint court and employer restitution payments on behalf of the youth program participant.

Family Resource Facilitator: FRF's provide referrals to local resources and programs, advocacy for culturally appropriate services, links to information and support groups and family wraparound facilitation.

Alpha Counseling: NOJOS Counseling, a continuum of sex-specific treatment and supervision allowing for reduction or increases in restrictions based on progress or regression in treatment.
